

American Heritage Time Use Study (AHTUS)

Codebook

Kimberly Fisher, Muriel Egerton, Nuno Torres, Andreas Pollmann, and Jonathan Gershuny
(University of Essex, UK)

With contributions from John Robinson (University of Maryland) and Anne Gauthier (University of Calgary)

August 2006

For the Glaser Progress Foundation

Purpose of codebook

This codebook gives an overview of the data harmonized for the American Heritage Time Use Survey (AHTUS) project. This document details the contents of the data files, brief instructions on how to use the data, a details on the surveys harmonized to make this dataset.