

BRITAIN'S YOUTH: NEW DATA NEW PERSPECTIVES

9th November – St Hugh's College, Oxford

09:30	10:00	Coffee/ Registration
		Britain's Youth
10:00	10:10	Welcome From The Director	Oriel Sullivan, CTUR
10:10	10:30	Introduction: Young People And Time Diary Data	Evrin Altintas, CTUR
10:30	11:15	Changes In Young People's Time Use Patterns In The UK (1974-2015)	Killian Mullan, CTUR
11:15	12:00	Transition To Adulthood In Britain From A Comparative Perspective	Evrin Altintas, CTUR
12:00	13:00	Lunch
		Longitudinal Perspectives
13:00	13:30	British Cohort Study	Giacomo Vagni, CTUR
13:30	14:00	Growing Up In Ireland	James Williams, Economic And Social Research Institute
14:30	15:00	Millennium Cohort Study	Stella Chatzitheochari, University Of Warwick
15:00	15:20	Break
		Thematic presentations from invited speakers
15:20	15:45	Health: A Person-Centred Analysis Of The Time Use Data Of Irish Adolescents	Eithne Hunt, University College Cork
15:45	16:10	Media: Evolutions In Adolescent's Time Use: "Evidence From The Belgian Time Use Surveys 1999, 2005, 2013"	Kyra De Korte, TOR, The Free University of Brussels
16:10	16:35	Technology: Young people and device use in daily life: An exploratory time-diary analysis	Killian Mullan, CTUR
16:35	17:00	Education: Summer Learning Loss Among American Youth	Seth Gershenson, American University
17:00	17:30	Break
17:30	19:00	Keynote Speech: "Our Kids: The American Dream in Crisis"	Robert Putnam, Harvard University
19:00	19:30	Reception	